UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

X

S.C. individually and on behalf of her child
G.C. a minor,

COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs,

-against -

NEW YORK CITY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION,

Defendant.

Plaintiffs, S.C. individually and on behalf of her child G.C., a minor, by their attorneys, Law Offices of Irina Roller, PLLC as and for their Complaint against defendant, THE NEW YORK CITY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, allege and state the following:

FIRST: Plaintiffs child is a minor child with learning disabilities, and at all relevant times plaintiffs reside within New York City, who are entitled to all rights, entitlements, and procedural safeguards mandated by applicable law and statutes including, but not limited to, the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act (“IDEIA”), 20 U.S.C. §§ 1400, et seq.; the federal regulations governing the IDEIA; Article 89 of the New York State Education law; and Part 200 of the New York State Education Commissioner’s Regulations.

SECOND: At all relevant times, all plaintiffs have resided and continue to reside within the County of New York.

THIRD: Plaintiffs, though known to defendant, are not expressly named herein by their given names or specific address because of the privacy guarantees provided in the IDEIA statute, as well as in the Family Education Rights Privacy Act, 20 U.S.C. § 1232g and 34 C.F.R. Part 99. Upon the request of this Court, plaintiffs are prepared to disclose plaintiffs' identities in camera.

FOURTH: Defendant, upon information and belief, is a duly constituted school district organized under the laws of the State of New York and is the "local educational agency" charged with the obligation to provide minor plaintiff herein with a free and appropriate public education ("FAPE").

NATURE OF THE ACTION

FIFTH: This action is filed pursuant to the IDEIA, 20 U.S.C. § 1415, and follows a trial on behalf of the plaintiffs that resulted in an Impartial Hearing Officer's ("IHO") decision, on the merits, in plaintiffs' favor.

SIXTH: This action is filed to secure statutory attorneys' fees and costs that plaintiffs should be awarded in this fee application action, and in the underlying administrative proceedings, as the plaintiffs are the "prevailing party" pursuant to the express fee-shifting provisions of the IDEIA, 20 U.S.C. § 1415(i)(3).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

SEVENTH: This court, pursuant to 20 U.S.C. §§ 1415(i)(2) and (3), 34 C.F.R. §§ 300.516 and 300.517, 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1367, has jurisdiction over this action without regard to the amount in controversy. Venue is proper in that plaintiffs and defendant reside in or are situated within this judicial district.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

EIGHTH: Pursuant to the IDEIA statute, as well as the New York State Education Law, all school agencies within the State are required to offer eligible students with disabilities a special education program and services that are tailored to meet the individual needs of each child with a disability.

NINTH: On or about October 5, 2015 plaintiffs, S.C. individually and on behalf of her child G.C., a minor, initiated an administrative due process proceeding against defendant in order to obtain tuition reimbursement and other relief based upon defendant's failure to provide G.C. with a FAPE for the 2016-17 school year. Plaintiffs sought tuition reimbursement in connection with G.C.'s placement at the York Preparatory School ("York") as well as and reimbursement for private tutoring services.

TENTH: Following a two-day trial, in a 15-page Findings of Fact and Decision ("FOFD") dated March 2, 2017 Impartial Hearing Officer Elise Kestenbaun, Esq. issued an Order, Case No. 163546. The Impartial Hearing Officer subsequently issued a 15-page Corrected Findings of Fact and Decision ("FOFD") dated March 20, 2017. The Corrected Findings of Fact and Decision found, upon an analysis of the three-prong "Burlington-Carter" test, that Plaintiff prevailed on all claims:

- a) Defendant, DOE failed to meet their burden on prong I. The DOE failed to offer a Free Appropriate Public Education ("FAPE") to the student for the 2016-17 school year.
- b) Plaintiffs satisfied Prong II by demonstrating that the York Preparatory School, at all relevant times, was an appropriate school placement for G.C. for the 2016-17 school year.
- c) Prong III, also known as the "equities," favored plaintiffs.

ELEVENTH: The hearing officer's Findings of March 20, 2017 FOFD directed defendant to reimburse the tuition for York Preparatory School for the 2016-17 school year.

TWELFTH: As a consequence of the favorable, un-appealed administrative decision, Plaintiff qualifies as a "prevailing party" within the meaning of the IDEIA, 20 U.S.C. § 1415(i)(3).

THIRTEENTH: Under the IDEIA fee-shifting provisions, plaintiffs should be awarded reasonable attorney's fees and other recoverable costs for legal services rendered at the administrative level in the amount of $21,197.00.

FOURTEENTH: Plaintiffs are also entitled to an award of attorney's fees and related to filing costs and disbursements associated with this action in an amount to be set by the Court, and presently in the amount of approximately $1,500.

PROCEDURAL REQUIREMENTS

FIFTEENTH: Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reaffirm each and every allegation set forth above as if fully set forth herein.

SIXTEENTH: Plaintiffs have exhausted their administrative remedies, as attorney's fees and related costs may not be recovered at the administrative level, and must be adjudicated and determined by the federal court, absent an agreement by the parties.

SEVENTEENTH: This action on behalf of all plaintiffs is timely brought based on the applicable three-year statute of limitations.

EIGHTEENTH: As a consequence of the favorable, un-appealed administrative decisions, all plaintiffs qualify as a “prevailing party” within the meaning of the IDEIA, 20 U.S.C. § 1415(i)(3).

NINETEENTH: Under the IDEIA fee-shifting provisions, plaintiffs should be awarded reasonable attorney’s fees and other recoverable costs for legal services rendered at the administrative level and in connection with this fee application.

RELIEF REQUESTED

WHEREFORE, by reason of the foregoing, this Court should: (a) declare plaintiffs to be the prevailing party; (b) fix and award plaintiffs’ statutory attorney’s fees and related costs and disbursements from the administrative proceeding in an amount not less than $21,197.00, (c) award plaintiffs the attorney’s fees and related filing costs and disbursements associated with this action in an amount to be set by the Court, and presently in the amount of approximately $1,500.00; and (d) award plaintiffs such other and further relief as this Court deems fair and just.

Dated: New York, New York
March 19, 2020

Respectfully submitted,
